TRAVEL INSURANCE COVERAGE AND HEALTH

All students are required to have appropriate travel insurance coverage. Students are expected to be in good health on arrival sufficient to attend the course without disruption or absence. If a student requires routine medication, they must bring a supply which will last for the entire program.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Students agree to be bound by student conduct rules and other policies applied by Ax:son Johnson Foundation and INTBAU while enrolled in the program. Inappropriate conduct includes for example illegal activity or behaviour that disrupts the learning environment or damages property of Ax:son Johnson Foundation and INTBAU or fellow students. Students in breach of this code of conduct will be expelled or suspended from the program (and no refund will be issued).

VISA AND PASSPORT ETC.

Non-Swedish students must have a valid passport during their entire stay in Sweden. To the extent required, the student must obtain visa and any other permits required to visit Sweden. The student is advised to contact the relevant Swedish embassy to get information about applicable requirements.

PLEASE CHECK BOX

I accept the student conduct rules and other policies applied by Ax:son Johnson Foundation and INTBAU:

PAYMENT

The price for the summer school is 1500 Euro and the sum covers costs for tuition, accommodation, meals, and excursions for all 26 days of the course. The payment should be sent to our account before 1st June 2017. Information about how to pay will be sent out after registration. The fee is non-refundable and it is suggested that insurance is obtained for cancellation.

All necessary equipment will be provided but if students wish to bring their own preferred references or drafting and drawing equipment they may.

A limited number of full and partial bursaries are available on application subject to suitability for the course and clear evidence of demonstrable hardship. Please apply to Lauren Banks with appropriate evidence, references and a statement. An interview may be requested. The decision to award bursaries will be final.
